

EJTN CRIMINAL JUSTICE II

“Obtaining and transferring evidence in criminal matters between Member States in view of securing its admissibility”

Stockholm, 23-24 October 2014

Domstolsakademin
Stockholm –SWEDEN

PROGRAM

THURSDAY 23 OCTOBER 2014

08:45 - Arrival and registration of participants

09:00 - Opening of the seminar

Representative from the hosting institution

Bénédicte Marquet, EJTN Deputy Projects Manager

9:15 – Introduction to the seminar

Bénédicte Marquet, EJTN Deputy Projects Manager

9.30 – Plenary Session: EU cross-border gathering and use of evidence in criminal matters

*Dr. Wendy de Bondt, Institute for International Research on Criminal Policy - Ghent University
(Belgium) - (tbc)*

10.30 – Coffee Break

11:00 - Work in national groups – Case 1

13:00 - Lunch

14:00 - Exchange of views in 2 international groups group – Case 1

Experts-Moderators:

*Dr. Wendy de Bondt, Institute for International Research on Criminal Policy - Ghent University
(Belgium) – (tbc)*

*David J. Dickson, Prosecutor, Head of International Cooperation Unit, Crown Office, Edinburgh
(Scotland) – (tbc)*

EJTN CRIMINAL JUSTICE II

“Obtaining and transferring evidence in criminal matters between Member States in view of securing its admissibility”

Stockholm, 23-24 October 2014

Domstolsakademin
Stockholm –SWEDEN

*Jan Van Gaever, Deputy Prosecutor General, Office of the Prosecutor General, Brussels
(Belgium)*

15:45 - Coffee Break

16:15 - Debriefing in plenary session – Case 1

Commented and directed by Dr.Wendy de Bondt, Institute for International Research on Criminal Policy - Ghent University (Belgium) – (tbc)

Moderators

*David J. Dickson, Prosecutor, Head of International Cooperation Unit, Crown Office, Edinburgh
(Scotland) – (tbc)*

*Jan Van Gaever, Deputy Prosecutor General, Office of the Prosecutor General, Brussels
(Belgium)*

17:00 - End of first day

19:30 – Social dinner

FRIDAY 24 OCTOBER 2014

09:00 - Arrival and registration of participants

9:15 - Work in national groups – Case 2

10:45 - Coffee Break

11:15 - Exchange of views in 2 international groups – Case 2

Experts-Moderators:

*Dr.Wendy de Bondt, Institute for International Research on Criminal Policy - Ghent University
(Belgium) – (tbc)*

EJTN CRIMINAL JUSTICE II

“Obtaining and transferring evidence in criminal matters between Member States in view of securing its admissibility”

Stockholm, 23-24 October 2014

Domstolsakademin
Stockholm –SWEDEN

*David J. Dickson, Prosecutor, Head of International Cooperation Unit, Crown Office, Edinburgh
(Scotland) – (tbc)*

*Jan Van Gaever, Deputy Prosecutor General, Office of the Prosecutor General, Brussels
(Belgium)*

12:15 - Debriefing in plenary session – Case 2

Commented and directed by Dr. Wendy de Bondt, Institute for International Research on Criminal Policy - Ghent University (Belgium) – (tbc)

Moderators

*David J. Dickson, Prosecutor, Head of International Cooperation Unit, Crown Office, Edinburgh
(Scotland) – (tbc)*

*Jan Van Gaever, Deputy Prosecutor General, Office of the Prosecutor General, Brussels
(Belgium)*

13:00 - Frequent Questions and Answers

13:15 - End of the seminar

With the support of the European Union