

UNITED NATIONS CONVENTION AGAINST TRANSNATIONAL ORGANIZED CRIME

EXPLORING THE EFFECTS OF ORGANIZED CRIME AND CORRUPTION ON THE INTEGRITY AND INDEPENDENCE OF THE JUDICIARY

12 OCTOBER 2020
15:00 CEST

MORE INFORMATION

UNODC's Judicial Integrity Team, together with the UN Special Rapporteur on the Independence of Judges and Lawyers, will contextualize the problem of judicial corruption arising from organized crime and illustrate its effects on the independence, integrity and impartiality of the judiciary. The panel will highlight the applicable international legal frameworks as well as good practices for preventing and combating corruption linked to organized crime. It will also promote specific resources of the Global Judicial Integrity Network available to improve training on judicial integrity principles.
