

INVITATION TO PARTICIPATE
for the selection of 3 experts specialised in the field of Public procurement
as part of the “Training and capacity building for the judiciary” Project, financed by the Norwegian Financial Mechanism 2014-2021

The Superior Council of the Magistracy, as a Project Promoter, in partnership with the National Institute of Magistracy, the National School of Clerks and the Norwegian Courts' Administration, implements the ”Training and capacity building for the judiciary” pre-defined project, funded by the Justice Programme, financed under the Norwegian Financial Mechanism (MFN) 2014-2021.

1. Project description

The general objective of the project is to strengthen the judiciary, by improving its efficiency, as well as to develop the concept of European legal culture at the national level of the judicial system in Romania.

The project aims to organize approximately 130 training activities in different fields of law. The professional training provided by the project will be conducted taking into account the relationship between the European perspective and the national perspective, allowing judges, prosecutors and other legal professionals to fully understand and apply the European legal concepts in their professional activity, at a national level.

2. Purpose of the selection procedure

In the framework of this project, the Superior Council of the Magistracy and the National Institute of Magistracy announce the launch of a selection procedure for 3 European experts (judges, prosecutors, academics and other specialists) in the field of public procurement to participate as training staff for 15 seminars organized in the field of public procurement.

3. Specific tasks of the experts

In order to organize the 15 seminars on public procurement, 13 experts will be selected from judges, prosecutors, academic and other specialists with experience in administrative litigation (public procurement) and other related fields, out of which 10 national experts and 3 EU experts. Each seminar will be run by a team comprised of both Romanian and foreign experts.

The experts will have to fulfil the following obligations:

- attend a preliminary meeting of the team of experts, subject to reimbursement;

Norway grants

- participate and cooperate with the team of experts in planning & conducting training activities (e.g. introduction, objectives, format of activities, etc), as well as drafting the agenda and the supporting materials for the seminar's debates/presentations;
- when preparing the training materials (eg seminar agenda, course materials etc.) use the official templates communicated by the activity officer designated at the level of the NIM/SCM, that incorporate the visibility elements of the financing mechanism,
- deliver practical presentations according to the established agenda, taking into account the profile of the participants (judges and prosecutors) The expert's presence is mandatory throughout the seminar day/days;
- be in permanent contact with the NIM activity officer for all issues related to the proper organisation of the training activities;
- fill in and submit the supporting payment documents, in accordance with the provisions of the remuneration contract.

The rights and obligations of the parties will be detailed in the contract of remuneration that will be concluded after this selection procedure. The planning of experts for all 15 seminars will be finalized at a later stage, depending on the results of the selection procedure.

4. Experts profile. Procedural aspects

The selection of experts will be decided by a selection committee appointed for this purpose, in two stages.

Within the first eliminatory stage, the selection committee will assess the admissibility of all submitted applications, by the following requirements:

- a) compliance with the deadline for the submission of applications;
- b) compliance with the required documentation, i.e.:
 - a letter of intent,
 - a curriculum vitae,
 - a seminar plan; the plan will include information on the purpose and objectives of the training activity on a topic chosen by the candidate, directions on all stages of the planning and organisation of the seminar, training methods, 3 topics of interest in the field of expertise, as well as any other elements that the expert considers relevant in this context. The design of the seminar plan will take into account the specificity of the target group: 20 participants — judges and prosecutors, as well as other legal and non-legal professionals in the field, with a special focus on judges specialised in administrative litigation (public procurement), the objectives of the seminars, the duration of the training activity (2 training days/seminar, with a maximum of 8 hours)

c) specific qualification requirements:

- minimum 6 years of experience as a judge or prosecutor (for judges and prosecutors), or minimum 6 years of experience as a specialist in administrative proceedings (public procurement) and related fields;
- other supporting documents where appropriate: certifications, references/letters of recommendation, any other documents that can support the candidate's claims towards meeting the qualification requirements.

Failure to comply with the deadline for the submission of documents, the specific qualification requirements and the non-submission of all required documents as listed above are grounds for inadmissibility of the application.

Throughout the assessment stage, the selection committee has the right to ask for other documents that support that the applications are admissible and that the candidates fulfil all the conditions required.

In the second stage, the selection committee will interview the admissible candidates, either face-to-face or by modern means of communication, looking at the following criteria:

- a) the relevant professional experience in administrative litigation (public procurement) or related areas (this criterion will be assessed by considering, where appropriate, published work, participation in relevant training/exchange programmes etc.);
- b) training skills and the ability to plan, organise and evaluate a training session;
- c) communication and cooperation skills in working with professionals;
- d) intermediate knowledge of English;
- e) availability and willingness to collaborate with the team of experts.

Only candidates who achieve a minimum grade of 8 points (out of 10) will be selected, ranked according to the grades awarded and within the limits of vacancies available under the selection notice. The experts will be selected in descending order of the arithmetic mean of the total marks awarded by each member of the selection committee for each applicant. Candidates who achieved a minimum grade of 8 points (out of 10) yet cannot be selected as a consequence of insufficient vacancies will be placed on a reserve list.

5. Financial matters
