

Victimology Summer School 2024

International programme - Thursday August 29, 2024

- 09:30 hrs Opening speeches
Rosa H.M. Jansen, MPA LLM
Chair Board of Directors Victim Support Netherlands and President Victim Support Europe
- Dr. Hester Stubbé
Head of the Department of Knowledge and Education at Victim Support Netherlands
- 10:00 hrs Key Note by Prof. dr. Nicole Immler
Professor of Historical Memory and Transformative Justice
- 10:45 hrs Break
- 11:15 hrs Break out session 1:
International best practices in victim support for mass victimisation
Following the opening lecture on mass victimisation, this session dives deeper into providing support for victims of terrorist attacks. What are best practices that we can learn from together?
- Lise Eilin Stene - Medical doctor and research professor at the Norwegian Centre for Violence and Traumatic Stress Studies (NKVTS)
Second speaker – to be confirmed
- 12:45 hrs Break
- 13:45 hrs Break out session 2:
Cross-border responses to (vulnerabilities to) mass victimisation
This session focuses on the cross-border context of mass victimisation and vulnerabilities to mass victimisation. Which factors account for (vulnerabilities to) mass victimisations and how can we promote cross-country collaborations to support victims and people at risk of victimisation from a psychosocial and legal perspective? How can we effectively deal with certain obstacles in this process, such as language and cultural barriers and differences in support options and laws?
- Aleksandra Ivankovic - Deputy Director of Victim Support Europe, Operations Manager of EU Centre of Expertise for Victims of Terrorism (EUCVT), Member of the International Network for Victims of Terrorism and Mass Victimisation (INVICTM)
- Ieke de Vries - Assistant Professor of Criminology at the Institute of Criminal Law and Criminology at Leiden University
- 15:15 hrs Break
- 15:45 hrs Closing lecture
Speaker to be confirmed.
- 16:30 -16:45 hrs Wrap-up

The indicated times may be subject to change. Time in Amersfoort is GMT+2.